STATINTL

MEMORANDUM FOR:

1. This is obviously a very fine project backed by the Lane Bryant Store for further brotherhood. You will note that outstanding people are selected for the Awards Committee and the recipients are such worthy organizations as the Urban League which assists the negroes, a Friends committee which is anti-war, a homeless boys institute which takes all races, an association for the education of mentally handicapped which again takes in all races and creeds, and a Catholic Interracial Council which also accepts all races.

2. The Director knows, I believe, all the member of this year's Awards Committee, Jacky Cochran, Frank Stanton, William Stevenson, Mrs. Arthur Hays Sulzberger, Joseph Welsh of McCarthy trial fame. Since the Director is merely invited to the luncheon I doubt that it is worth his time to accept. Therefore I recommend that the Director regretfully decline.

Dear Mr. Malsin:

Thank you very much for your letter of August 6, inviting me to attend the Tenth Anniversary of the Lane
Bryant Annual Awards celebration to be held in New York on November 13.

I should like very much to join you on the occasion of the Tenth Anniversary of your very worthwhile program, but I find I cannot at the present time make a definite commitment to be with you next November 13. If, a little later, I find I can join you, I will advise you in advance, although I doubt that I shall be able to be among those present. In any event, I want to take this opportunity to offer my best wishes for every success to the Lane Bryant Annual Awards program on the occasion of this Tenth Anniversary.

Sincerely,

Signed

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Never before in the history of our country has the volunteer played a more important role than today. Millions of Americans each year are giving more and more of themselves for others. The long dream of the brotherhood of man seems to be rushing towards the threshold of reality.

We, here at Lane Bryant, have been fortunate to have had a bird's-eye view of this millrace for the past ten years through the Lane Bryant Annual Awards which were established to inspire and encourage voluntary participation in efforts that benefit the family of man.

The Tenth Anniversary of the Lane Bryant Annual Awards will be celebrated Thursday, November 13th of this year at the Hotel Plaza with a salute to those who have been connected with the Awards in the past, the recipients of the 1957 Awards and the nearly 35 million American volunteers.

We are writing you at this time to ask that you reserve the date of November 13th on your calendar. The hour is 12 noon. We would like to assure your attendance at this Tenth Lane Bryant Annual Awards luncheon. Your presence would help focus the importance of the volunteer's generous and selfless dedication and man's eternal march toward a better world.

Cordially yours,
Raphael Malsin
